HOME ELECTIONS.

NOMINATION OF CANDIDATES

THIRTY-TWO ARE UNOPPOSED.

THREE-CORNERED CONTESTS IN LONDON.

(Reuter's Service.)

LONDON, October 19.

Final figures show 1,414 candidates were nominated on Saturday, including 32 unopposed, making, with previous nominations for Cambridge and London Universities, 1,420 candidates. These comprise:

Conservatives	532
Constitutionalists	7
Liberals	341
Labour	501
Cooperatives	9
Communists	8
Independents	12
Republicans	7
Sinn Féiners	1
Nationalists	1
Prohibitionists	1
Total	1420

Nominations from the combined Universities and the University of Wales have yet to be made. Twenty-three of the 228 three cornered fights are in London electoral boroughs.

A Christian Pacifist and a Liberal have been nominated for the University of Wales, making the total number of candidates 1422.

POSITION OF FRANCE.

M. HERRIOT WELL PLEASED.

"NO HOSTILE PREJUDICE"

(Reuter's Service.)

BOULGNE, October 20.

In a speech at the Radical-Socialist Party Congress to-day, M. Herriot claimed that as a result of Government's endeavours to end the isolation of France, her position was now unassailable. He could discern no hostile prejudice against France among the nations gathered at Geneva. Relations with Germany herself were easier as the first stage of Franco-German economic negotiations showed.

GERMAN REPUBLICAN SPIRIT.

The Republican spirit had won certain successes in Germany, but France cannot yet feel reassured. Germany still seemed to hesitate between two paths. The Nationalists were busy militarily preparing youths, while associations of ex-soldiers remained in relation with the Reichswehr. Certain fees almost smacked of mobilisation manoeuvres. He hoped the democratic spirit would finally prevail.

France, at any rate, had sounded the call to peace; she was ready to resume relations with Russia. M. Herriot placed financial reform in the forefront of Home policy.

MOSQUE IN LONDON.

FOUNDATION STONE LAID.

KHALIF'S HOPES FOR "TOLERATION."

(Reuter's Service.)

LONDON, October 19.

The foundation stone, of the first mosque to be built in London, was laid this afternoon at South Fields, Wandsworth.

The ceremony was performed by, Khalif Atul Masih, head of the Ahmadiyya Islamic community, in the presence of the Japanese Ambassador and others.

The building will cost about £10,000, but at present only the mirab, or praying place will be built.

The Khalif Atul, in performing the ceremony, hoped that the spirit of toleration and large-heartedness, which the mosque would create, would help to establish peace, amity and goodwill among men.

MOTOR FATALITY.

DEATH OF COUNT ZBOROWSKY.

CAR TURNS TURTLE.

FAMOUS RACING DRIVER KILLED.

(Reuter's Service.)

MILAN, October 20.

In the competition here to-day for the Grand Prix of Italy, the Mercedes car, driven by Count Zborowsky, the famous racing motorist, turned turtle. Count Zborowsky was killed and his mechanic injured.

SPANISH C.-IN-C.

PROCLAMATION BY DE RIVERA.

OBJECT OF HIS MISSION.

(Reuter's Service.)

TETUAN, October 20.

On the occasion of his appointment as Commander-in-Chief of the Spanish Army in Africa, General Primo de Rivera, has issued a proclamation to the troops.

He declares that after the necessary efforts have been made to save the honour of the Spanish arms and the lives of the soldiers, the territories will be arranged so that Spain will accomplish her mission without detriment to her national prestige.

Spain will soon restore the situation; then the time will have arrived for necessary legislation. Meanwhile no effort must be spared to end the Moroccan problem.

IMPORTANCE OF GERMANY.

SPEECH BY STRESEMANN.

(Reuter's Service.)

BERLIN, October 19.

Dr. Stresemann, Foreign Minister, in a speech at Frankfurt-on-Main, declared that all the States represented on the Council of the League of Nations had pronounced in favour of Germany having a permanent seat on the Council, but the point still to be discussed was that Germany could not participate in wars or a blockade under the orders of the League so long as she was the only disarmed State amid neighbours armed to the teeth.

FLOODS IN INDIA.

TERRIBLE LOSSES REPORTED.

(Reuter's Service.)

SIMLA, October 19.

Reports from the outlying districts show that many hundreds of villages were swept away in the recent Ganges and Jumna floods.

There was a heavy loss of life, and enormous crop and cattle losses.

Thousands who sought refuge in the trees were attacked by snakes.

The floods have had the wholesome effect of destroying plague rats, but malaria and dengue fevers become rife as the waters subside.

Relief measures are in full swing.

REPARATIONS COMMISSION.

AGENT-GENERAL REACHES PARIS.

MR. GILBERT BOUND FOR BERLIN.

(Reuter's Service.)

PARIS, October 19.

Mr. Seymour Gilbert, permanent Agent-General for Reparations, arrived here to-day from America.

After conferring with Mr. Owen Young (American member of the commission to investigate the possibilities of the German Budget) and the Reparations Commission, Mr. Gilbert expects to leave for Berlin in a few days' time.

SCENE OF DESOLATION.

A scene, typical of Canton's Western Suburb (San Kwun) today. This picture is of San Dan Lake (New Po Market), a side street running parallel to the Tai Ping Maloo. A very narrow, crowded street, San Kwun, is shown in the foreground.

Talk of an early General Election is causing not a few members of Parliament to look into their private finances to see if they really can afford the luxury of it any longer. Shrewd political observers do not see any sign of a "settled" Parliament for some little time, and a crop of resignations is not improbable if the threat of an election becomes more real.

Wireless Ship Control.

An account is given of some experiments in the control of ships by wireless currents recently carried out by the Italian Navy, by the "Times" correspondent at Rome. By means of a system recently discovered by Signor Flamma a submarine chaser was successfully manoeuvred up to a distance of ten miles. It is claimed that Signor Flamma's experiments are infinitely more successful than any hitherto made, and that the control of the ship which is being manoeuvred is in no way prejudiced by atmospheric disturbances or interruptions caused by other wireless stations.

On the Track of Vitamines.

Chemists in many parts of the world are trying to discover what vitamins are. Commercial patents have been taken out in the United States and in this country (says the "Daily News") for Dr. Zucker's process of isolating vitamin A in cod liver oil, and an important announcement on the subject is expected shortly. Dr. Zucker has been experimenting at Columbia University with this growth-producing vitamin. Dr. Zilva, of the Lister Institute, has been able to isolate vitamin C, which is useful for its anti-scorbutic properties. Medical men are looking forward hopefully to the time when the mystery which now surrounds vitamins will be dispelled.

A Master of Make-up.

Mr. Cyril Maude, who has announced his intention of retiring from the stage at the end of next year, would never have been an actor if he had followed the advice of one of his tutors at Charter-house (says the "Morning Post"). The master did his best to dissuade him from going on the stage, but young Maude also did his best to convince him that he had some aptitude for it. He hired an old woman's wig from a hairdresser, obtained some feminine clothing, and walked in the rig-out in broad daylight to his tutor's house. On the way he was encouraged to hear a French woman, exclaim to her companion:—"Mon Dieu! Just look at her! Aren't those Englishwomen ugly?" Not long ago he said:—"I am still learning and studying at the mirror. Every time I play Grumpy I occupy fully an hour in making up the old fellow's face, and I have spent 1268 hours at the task."

The Rotoscope.

Cheques for £10 were presented to the leading prizewinners at the first exhibition of inventions in Aldwych House, London, under the auspices of the Institute of Patentees (Incorporated). First place says the "Evening Dispatch" in the ladies' section was tied for by Mrs. E. McAlton, Beresford, Gerrard's Cross, Bucks, whose invention was a kettle with a lid that will not fall off, and Mrs. Routledge, 24 Mazenod Avenue, West-Hampstead, who showed a portable fire. In the men's section there was also a tie for first place Mr. A. J. Ashton, 21 Norton Road, Leitchworth, exhibited a "rotoscope," and explained that by its use it is possible to observe in detail the most intricate machinery as though it were stationary, although in reality moving at 40,000 revolutions per minute. Any defect would at once become visible without the engine being stopped. Apart from its application to engineering, Mr. Ashton states that interesting results have been achieved in the study of the movement of insects' wings, wave propagation, the dropping of water, and in other directions.

Telephone Improvements.

Attention should be drawn to two outstanding inventions in the actual transmission of telephony over long distances, (writes Prof. G. W. Howe, in "Engineering") viz, loading and repeaters. It was Oliver Heaviside who, in 1885, proposed to improve the range by increasing the inductance of the line. Although this revolutionary suggestion fell on deaf ears for fifteen years, it ultimately proved to be one of the great inventions of telephony; it is of special importance in underground and submarine telephone cables, the electro-static capacity of which otherwise seriously limits the range. The other outstanding novelty is the introduction of repeaters at intermediate points in long telephone lines. These repeaters are specialised types of low frequency amplifiers; they were made commercially possible by the invention and perfection of the three-electrode thermionic valve. The attenuated speech currents arriving at the end of a section of line are amplified, and thus given a new lease of life before being passed on to the new section. By using a large number of such repeating stations, telephonic communication has been established between New York and San Francisco. But in addition to making such long-distance communication possible, the use of repeaters enables medium distances to be bridged by relatively cheap lines of high attenuation.

Strange "Cures."

It appears that some years ago a servant in the Manor-house at Stanton was found to have been confined three times, and, on being questioned, said that she had discovered that confinement was a most efficacious remedy for rheumatism (says "T. P." and Cassells' Weekly). The curing of smallpox in the Middle Ages was, apparently, no very difficult matter. John of Gaddesden, Court doctor to Edward II, adopted the simple expedient of wrapping his patients in red cloth. These are his directions:—"Let scarlet red be taken, and let him who is suffering smallpox be entirely wrapped in it, or in some other red cloth; I did thus when the son of the illustrious King of England suffered from smallpox. I took care that all about his bed should be red, and that cure succeeded very well." The following original "cure." The following fever is to be found in an old volume of "Notes and Queries."—"The Irish, when anyone has been attacked with scarlet fever, are accustomed to cut off some of the hair of the sick man, which they put down the throat of an ass. By this means the disease is supposed to be charmed away from the patient, and to attack the ass instead." A Sussex remedy for gout—which surely is as strange as any—is mentioned by the Rev. John Coker Egerton in his "Sussex Folk and Sussex Ways." "I have known a person," he writes, "who went a long distance to have a live snake applied to the throat for gout; and I have known of a servant girl who tried the virtue of a dead one for the same ailment. It was discovered, and being obliged to throw it away, she said she would go somewhere and get a dead man's hand put to her neck."

A Great Highway.

In the presence of a large gathering, the formal ceremony of marking the commencement of the construction of the new road took place at the corner of Cumberland Road and Todd Street, Glasgow. At a luncheon in the Council Chambers, Mr. Gosling acknowledging the toast of his health and expressing thanks for the gift of a gold cigarette case, said:—"He had had some very interesting figures given him. There were now 1,250,000 mechanically propelled vehicles on the roads of the country, which was an increase of 217,000 vehicles in the last twelve months. If that was to be the progress made by vehicles on the roads, they would have to consider the problem with a very long view when they remembered that the road which had been started that day would take three years to complete. Continuing Mr. Gosling said that with regard to further improvements in road-making he had introduced a Bill which he hoped would be passed in the early autumn. There was altogether in Great Britain over £40,000,000 a year spent on road making and road mending, and yet nobody had any power to spend money in making experiments to find out whether road-making was being done in the best possible way. The spending of large money in practical experiments might save millions of pounds in the long run, and they were asking for power in that direction."

POSED AS FOOTBALLER.

FULL PENALTY FOR FALSE LOVER.

London, August 31:—Heartless
deception in the name of a sportsman prominent in the public eye
was revealed at Hull. How she was hoodwinked into receiving attentions from a man whom she believed to be Joe Kitchen, a professional footballer attached to the Hull City Club, was described by Miss Maud B. Leighton, a domestic servant, living in Beverley-road.
Before the magistrates appeared Joe Simpson, of Parkgrove, charged with obtaining from her £10 by false pretences. According to Mr.
G. T. Mainprize, prosecuting, prisoner met prosecutrix in September, 1923, and introduced himself as Joe Kitchen, of the Hull City F.C.
He made out that he was single and was earning £6 a week. At that time Kitchen had won for himself
considerable fame as an international footballer, and his name
was constantly appearing in the newspapers. Simpson, in order to impress Miss Leighton, claimed
that these notices referred to him.
In reality, added Mr. Mainprize,
he was married. For some time
Miss Leighton and he kept company, and one night he asked her if she had any money. He explained that he wanted to invest in brewery shares. He accompanied Miss Leighton to the bank, where she drew out £10 and entrusted it to him. Prisoner told the bank manager what he intended to do with the money, and when the manager remarked, "I can invest
it," Simpson replied, "No, give me
the money." A few weeks later,
when she asked him about the shares, he grew very angry and declared that they were all right.
Up to September, 1923, prosecutrix received about 35 letters from prisoner, most of which were signed, "Your loving sweetheart, Joe." He told her that he was getting a trainer's job at Rotherham, and had his eye on a nice little house
where they would be very happy together. Shortly afterwards he disappeared, and nothing was heard of him until a few weeks ago. When arrested he stated, "I admit I did wrong. I spent the money." He intended to pay it back. Miss Leighton, when asked if she wished to be seated in the witness-box, replied, "No, I will stand up and face it out."
She told the Bench, "I put my trust in him, believing him to be Joe Kitchen." Prisoner pleaded for an opportunity of paying the money back, and expressed his regret. The clerk, addressing him, remarked: "You are a heartless scoundrel, making promises of marriage, and defrauding a single woman, when all the time
you were married." Simpson was sentenced, to three months' imprisonment, with hard labour.
"We cannot give you more, or else
we would," remarked the clerk.

Hungry—Yet Afraid To Eat!

Such is the plight of thousands.
They dread mealtimes, for they know that suffering will follow;
they know that, diet as they will,
digestive disorder is remorseless,
and it has them in its grip. The pity of it is that such suffering is quite unnecessary, as any doctor
can tell you. A little Bismag Magnesia, taken in water (or a couple of the tablets swallowed)
will instantly neutralise the harmful acid which gives rise to the trouble, and thus prevent all possibility of discomfort. You'll suffer no more from stomach
troubles or weakness of the vital organs if you go to the nearest chemist, get a package of this sure cure, and take as directed.—Remember, a dose of Bismag Magnesia will stop the worst
attack of stomach pain instantly,
and you've only to take the preparation for a very little while to feel a different person altogether
—healthier, happier and brighter.

EVERY WOMAN'S NEED.

At this time of year in the Far East every woman needs a tonic to build up the blood, to revitalize the nerves, to restore appetite, to put fresh colour into lips and cheeks, to revive energy and spirits depressed and debilitated by the long trying days of heat.

And it is just at this time that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are of the utmost value, to women—and to men too. For they are a powerful restorative of exceptional merit because of their unique tonic action of the whole system through the blood and nerves.

Are you anemic—bloodless? Is your nervous system so run-down that you cannot bear colds, are easily irritated, feel depressed, have lost the power to enjoy and derive benefit from your meals? Do you feel old and worn-out, look weary, headachy, weak-kneed, lacking in energy, ambition, desire to enjoy to their full the good things of life? If so, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are what you need. Give them a trial to-day and you will be surprised how soon your appetite will revive, your nerves will be soothed and invigorated, the ability to sleep soundly and restfully will come back to you, your general health and your whole outlook
on life will become changed for the better.

Do not delay. Your chemist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. 25¢ per bottle, $1.00 per bottle, $2.00 for six bottles.

Amstel Series Gold Coast
"All In—Down and Out"
With the perspiration hanging on his eyebrows, "Are you SURE it's Amstel?" "There's nothing else and nothing better," was the reply, as the
yellow-gold beer flowed into the glass.
Cool, clear, sparkling beer is the only
drink to quench the thirst.
A dull, flat, tasteless drink cannot give relief to a dried-out throat, so why order
any other, when all you need to say is "Amstel," to bring the beer which looks
as good as it tastes.
Don't merely order "a beer."
Say "AMSTEL" beer, a little trouble giving a great reward.

AN OMINOUS CALM.

The defeat of the Merchant
Volunteers by Dr. Sun Yat-sen's
mercenary soldiers last week

means that comparatively few Gantonese units will remain faithful to the Chinese Bolshevik after last week's slaughter.

Already news is to hand of squabbles between the Gantonese
and Yunnanese "braves" over the spoils from the massacre.
Quarrels may soon lead to open conflict and, with the full knowledge of the approach of General
Chan Kwing-ming, with a force of 40,000 men, it is possible that dissatisfaction in Sun's Army
may lead to attempts at desertion—all factors tending
to make the crisis more acute.
The despatch of 50 men
from the K.E.O. 2/4 Grenadiers
by the s.s. "Kinshan" last night
indicates that further trouble is feared and in view of the anti-British pronouncements that have recently been made in Dr. Sun Yat-sen's official organ, it is well
that steps should be taken in preparation for another attempt on the Customs if not an attempt to set fire to the Shamien.

The present calm is ominous.

Sir Percy Scott.

The British Navy has lost an outstanding figure by the death of Admiral Sir Percy Scott. His name may not be easily recalled to mind by the general public as the names of younger officers, for the only work which he directed in the Great War was in its earlier stages. He retired a year before the outbreak of war, but was prevalent on for a time to take charge of the gunnery defences of London against aircraft attacks.
This he was well qualified to do,
for he was the inventor of various appliances for improvement in heavy gun shooting, and was responsible for the building of the gun-carriages which were used to transport his vessels' armament
overland to the relief of Ladysmith, and was the initiator of the system of director firing. Such is the fickleness of public opinion
that it is probable that his quarrel with Lord Charles Bessborough will last longer in the memory than any of his considerable achievements. This was when the fleet was in readiness for the visit of the German Emperor and Sir Percy signalled to his senior officer, who was in command of H.M.S. "Roxburgh," that to look pretty appeared to be of more importance than gunnery.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

On Saturday, motor-car No.
914 accidentally collided with a coolie in Des Voeux Road West.
The coolie's right arm was injured.

The Silk which left here by the P. & O. s.s. "Kaisar-i-Hind"
on September 20, was delivered in Marseilles on the October 17.
The time in transit was 27 days.

Mr. Cuthill, head watchman of the Kowloon Docks, has reported to the Police that an apprentice
boiler-maker fell into the harbour
off the Kowloon Dock and was drowned.

Losing his balance from a plank strung alongside the s.s.
"Flint," which was having its paint chipped off, a workman fell into the harbour during the weekend and was drowned.

A fine of $10 or 14 days' hard labour in default was imposed on an unlicensed hawk for offering for sale news circulars without a licence at Cooke Street, Hunghom, on Sunday. The case came before the Magistrate, at the Kowloon Court this morning.

Armed with revolvers and daggers, four robbers broke into
No. 36 H. Shanghai Street on Saturday where they drove the inmates into one cubicle. They then gagged their victims with towels and bound their limbs with wire. After ransacking the flat
for half an hour the gang assembled the loot valued at $984 and made off.

A Chinese amah employed by Mr. N. Bejoo of No. 70, Queen's Road Central, has died in hospital,
presumably from injuries received through falling from a verandah
into the street below. She was found unconscious and removed to hospital in the ambulance, but died before admittance. According to the report she was last seen working on the verandah.

What with a Canton reign of terror, the telegraphic interruption,
and vernacular news paper
holidays, Chinese extra specials
have been selling like the proverbial hot cakes. Many of the vendors were without licences.
When one was prosecuted at the Magistrate's Court this morning, Mr.
R. E. Lindell remarked: "In these times of stress everybody is anxious to know what is going on,
and let the market go with caution."

Above is a picture of Mr. Owen D. Young, American lawyer and member of the committee to investigate the possibilities of the German Budget. Mr. Seymour Gilbert, the permanent Agent-General for Reparations, will confer with Mr. Young in Paris, before continuing his journey to Berlin.

CORRESPONDENCE.

SEARCHING PASSENGERS.

[To the Editor of the China Mail.]

Sir,—On last Saturday night, I returned to Hongkong from Kowloon by the Star Ferry at about eleven o'clock. There was quite a large number of European who were fellow passengers with me on board the same launch. When I reached the exit from the pier, I found two Indian policemen who insisted on "searching" all the Asiatic passengers, while all the European passengers were allowed to go past uninterfered with.

I grant that officers of the law
have the right to "search" every "suspect." But it was certainly remarkable that all Asiatics, no matter how favourable their external appearance was, should have been thus "suspected" and
"searched," while all Europeans,
even those who presented a poor
external appearance, should have been passed by as above all suspicion. I do not of course,
mean to suggest that these policemen have been specially instructed to "search" Asiatics alone. But,
if policemen persist in "searching"
only Asiatics, and if, as I am given to understand, most of them have been doing so lately, Asiatics of this Colony cannot help coming to the unpleasant conclusion that the police have been instructed to "suspect" Asiatics only. Such a conclusion is certainly undesirable
and I hope that the proper authorities will see that this obnoxious racial discrimination in "searching" is not practised any longer and that they will make it clear to all officers of the law that a white skin does not put a man
beyond suspicion and exempt him
from being "searched."

Yours etc.,
OH SEE KAY.

PIRATES ACTIVE.

"HING WAN" REFUSES TO BE SEARCHED.

ESCORTED TO PAKKAI.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

Pakkai, Kowloon, October 10.
As is customary when there is a crisis in Canton, pirates are once
more active in this part of the river
delta.

Last week the steam launch
"Hing Wan" (which, by the way,
is easily distinguished by her two funnels) was escorted into port by the Customs' cutter "Pak Tau."
The "Hing Wan" acts as tow to the junk trading between Hongkong and Shikoi and it is stated that she refused to be searched by a motor-boat which flew the Customs flag. Further, it is rumoured that the "Hing Wan" (or the junk) opened fire on the motor patrol boat and that a misunderstanding arose.

On Saturday, the "Hing Wan"
was still detained by the Customs.
Since the days when the gunboat
"Kong Koo" was commandeered
by pirates and then ran amok in the delta to finish up with several lakes in loot, it is understood that merchant craft can refuse to be searched in mid-stream, but, if called up to do so, they are to go to the nearest Customs station for loa-fips to be established. It is thought that the "Hing Wan" may have claimed this privilege.

The Customs' cutter "Pak
Tau" referred to by our correspondent has proved a terror to pirates,
having been instrumental in rounding up a "hunch" spirited away
from the Colony, and in the capture of a gang of pirates who ultimately met their fate in Chingnan, off Macao. The "Pak Tau" fought a duel with a pirate launch and shelled the latter to such effect that it sank in Mui-ni waters. —Ed.

NEW CHIEF JUSTICE.

OFFICIAL WELCOME FROM LEGAL PROFESSION.

FELICITOUS SPEECHES.

Be-wigged barristers and solicitors, some gowned and others not,
attended in full strength the official
welcome given by the legal profession in the Supreme Court this morning to the new Chief Justice
of the Colony, Sir Henry Gwynne Gollan. This immediately preceded the Criminal Sessions over which His Lordship presided.

Speech of Welcome.

Mr. C. G. Alabaster K. C. said:
In the absence of the learned
Attorney-General and of Sir
Henry Pollock, the privilege
devolves on me of extending to Your Lordship the Chief Justice a cordial welcome from both branches of the legal profession.
We trust that your sojourn in the Colony may last for many years
and we look forward to the continuation of the happy relationship between Bench and Bar which has been such a pleasant feature of our lives here. In the administration of justice, Your Lordship may rest assured of our loyal co-operation.

Chief Justice Replies.

Sir Henry replied as follows: I thank you for the cordial terms in which on behalf of the legal profession you have welcomed me
here to-day. The distinctive feature of the British system is that all branches of law and its administration are in the hands of the legal profession and to that principal, I think, you may attribute the traditional relations
which exist between the Bench and the Bar. I am sure that nothing makes more
for the same administration of law
than that these relations should continue; and not only, therefore,
for personal reasons, but for reasons of public importance, I
thank you for the promise of support whilst I have to fulfil the duties of the Chief Justiceship of the Colony.

WAR IN CHINA.

WU PEI-FU REPORTS
VICTORY.

CHUMENKOW RECAPTURED.

(Reuter's Service.)

Peking, October 20.
Marshal Wu Pei-fu, this morning, telegraphed to the Government
announcing that Chiumenkw had been completely recaptured.

Reuter's special correspondent
at Chinwangtao telegraphs that 12
Government and 10 war vessels are concentrated there under instructions to proceed to Antung.

It is reported that Marshal Wu Pei-fu has made satisfactory
arrangements with the South Manchurian Railway, the nature of which, however, has not been disclosed.

VIOLENT FIGHTING.

The following communiqué was issued by Marshal Wu Pei-fu,
under date of October 18, received through cable and headed to the
"China Mail" for publication.

Fighting is extremely violent on the central fronts along Shanhai-kuan, where our troops, for the last twenty-four hours, have repulsed a series of terrific attacks from the rebels.

The detachment of rebel troops
who have worked their advance
from Kiumun, by desperate struggle
for more than ten days, have been cut off by the 14th and 24th
divisions of the national forces.
They are expected to surrender in a few days.

According to reports from the Mukden secret agents, the rebel leader Chang Tso-lin is seriously
hindered by the problem of supply
of ammunition, which is beginning
to show signs of shortage.

On the Jehol front, according to reports, our troops under General Chang Chik-kiang are in process of establishing connections with the troops that have occupied Chih-feng to make a combined move on Chienping. Also several divisions of our troops have arrived at Pingchuan in their advance on Ling-yuan. We expect to recapture
these two places in a few days.

Marshal Feng Yu-hsiang, commander-in-chief of the third army,
wired on the 17th inst. that a body
of enemy troops was defeated in the vicinity of Langkanfang and had retired in the direction of Chienping.

RIFLE SHOOTING.

EXCITING MATCH AT TAIKOO.

The Taikoo Rifle Club were indeed fortunate in having splendid weather on the occasion
of their opening shoot of the season, yesterday, at the Taikoo range. Two teams picked from those present (which included
friends of members of the Club)
allowed of a very close contest,
both sides being fairly evenly matched. Mr. G. H. Summer's team proved the victors by the narrow margin of 8 points, final scores being:—
Mr. Summer's team . . . 469 points.
Mr. D. Reid's team . . . 461 points.
Spoons were presented to the winning team by Mr. G. M. Young,
who with a few well chosen words
made it quite clear that he expected
great things from the Club
during the coming season. It was also proposed by several members
that the member whose score was highest should be presented with a spoon as although he had a splendid 88 to his credit he was unfortunately on the losing side.
A spoon was therefore presented to Mr. D. Reid for his very creditable score. Taikoo should do well during the coming season, several young members having joined the Club, which is for the most part composed of ex-service men from all branches of the forces.

Scores in Detail.

Details of the scores follow:	Competi- tors	Range in Yards	T.

Chan Wing-wa was brought
before Mr. E. W. Hamilton at Kowloon Magistrate's Court this morning, charged with stealing
$10 from a woman named in Kiu
Hok Un Kok, Huihshon, on October 16, by false pretences, purpor-
ing that he was a Public Works officer and in a position to issue a permit to her to remove her house at Hok Un Kok would not be demolished by the Government, with intent to defraud. The case was adjourned to to-day.

RIOTS IN MANILA.

ANTI-CHINESE OUTBREAK
IN PHILIPPINES.

TROUBLE UNDER CONTROL.

(Reuter's Service.)

MANILA, October 20.
One Chinese was killed and two policemen and 13 Chinese seriously wounded in Filipino anti-
Chinese riots on Saturday and Sunday.

Five hundred police and reserves
are on duty and it is believed the trouble is under control. This morning there was similar rioting
in the outskirts of Manila.

No reports have been received from the provinces.

INTERPORT - CRICKET.

TEAM FROM MALAYA
SELECTED.

A STRONG COMBINATION.

Mr. L. S. Greenhill, honorary secretary of the H.K.C.C., has courteously sent to the "China Mail" further details about the in-terport cricket teams. According to the latest information the following team may be expected here in November to represent the Straits
Settlements and the Federated Malay States:—

A. E. Holmes Brown, E. W. N.
Wyatt, — Foster, G. M. Brand, N.
Grenier, — Edwards, P. N. Knight,
Lieut. R. A. Phayre, R. A.
Lieut. F. H. Thompson, (Royal Sussex Regt.), N. H. F. Whitley,
Flight Lieut. Livock, E. J. Riches,
A. S. Jeff (Umpire), — Crawford (Scorer).

Grenier has been to Hongkong
at least twice before, viz. 1909 and 1920. On October 1, when the first list was given, I wrote:

Grenier is dazzling, if not quite infallible, as third man and his work in the outfield is exemplary
so Hongkong batsmen should look out.

Appropos his interport record,
my colleague "Argus" tells me
that they both played in their first interport match in 1899—Perak v.
Selangor—when they turned out for the former state. Grenier was a lad of about 16 or 17 and gossip
was busy about his playing in short pants but he obtained the pants and incidentally made a lot of runs and shone in the field.

Wyatt has also visited us before,
probably also in 1909. Unless he has been confused with somebody
of the same name he is likely to prove a more-than-useful left-handed bowler. The person referred to has been the mainstay of the Selangor attack for years.

Lieut. Phayre is either a Wool-wich or Sandhurst man and has played in Army representative matches.

Without the initials one cannot be too sure of Livock but "Wisden"
gives the name of a Mr. G. E.
Livock who kept wicket and scored 12 not out and 0 for Lord Cow-dray's XI v. the Rest of England
at Hastings in September last year. As Lord Cowdray has been,
or is, President of the Air Board
and Livock is a Flight Lieutenant,
the inference is that G. E. Livock and Lieut. Livock are one and the same man.

In the 1920 match in which Hongkong were beaten by 30 odd runs, Grenier and Riches opened
both innings for the visitors.
Grenier made 10 and 0, Riches 62
and 3. Holmes Brown was also here and he went in third wicket
down to score 56 and 2. Bowling figures were as follows:—

First Innings—Holmes Brown 23 overs (out of 27 bowled from his end) 2 maidens, 78 runs and 2
wickets. Riches was the bowler who completed the 27 overs from that side, his analysis being 34
overs, 10 runs, 3 wickets.

Second Innings—Riches and Holmes Brown again undertook
the attack from one side and Hennessy (who is now coming this time, went on unchanged at the other). Analysis—Riches 23 overs, 3 maidens, 65 runs, 5 wickets.
Holmes Brown 6 overs, 31 runs, no
wicket.

Memory fails me as to what kind of bowler Riches is but I am told that Holmes Brown is a medium paced, right-handed bowler, with plenty of spin from the off.

YOUNG THIEF.

THREE MONTHS' JAIL
FOR STEALING.

Before Mr. E. W. Hamilton at
the Kowloon Magistrate's Court this morning, a Chinese lad named Chan Yung, aged 18 years was charged with theft of one metal wrist-watch and $175. He was sentenced to three months' hard labour.

Li Chik-ko, preserved plum dealer, a boy aged 16 years, of Reclamation Street, stated that he and a companion were walking along the road near No. 3 Railway Bridge, when the accused came from behind a tree threatened to stab him with a dagger, and removed from his wrist one metal
watch and from his jacket pocket $175. A few minutes after the robbery, he met two Chinese detectives, made a report and the defendant was arrested.

SHADOWS OVER CANTON.

FIGHTING FOR THE SPOILS.

STRUGGLE ALONG RAILWAY.

Attention in Canton now is concentrated, not so much as to whether the Merchants Volunteers will offer more fight, but on reconstruction work, i.e., resumption of the city's interrupted trade. However, two shadows loom on the horizon. One is the chance of the Government troops fighting the Yunnanese mercenaries for possession of the spoils and the privilege of harassing the civil population and secondly the reports of fighting along the Kowloon-Canton Railway, not far from the metropolis.

Our special correspondent writing at 1 p.m. yesterday, denies that further fighting has taken place although the Government troops and the Yunnanese faction are on the qui vive. The latter are zealously guarding the remains of burnt streets in the Western Suburb and the Government troops are trying to oust them. Dr. Sun's immediate subordinates are trying to find a peaceful solution.

Fighting, which can at best be only described as some spirited skirmishing, has been reported from outside the east of the city. Rumours were that General Chan Kwong-ming's forces were marching on the city but later on the attackers were stated to be railway bandits who had flourished Chan's banner, pretending to be anti-Sun regulars. Latest reports say that the attackers were repulsed. Nevertheless, well-informed people state that Chan is advancing and that he has been materially assisted by natives of districts through which his forces have passed. Another report hints that only a small body of pro-Chan troops are advancing up the Railway.

Strike Still On.

Although the merchants have been crushed the strike is still on. As the merchants are conspicuous by their absence, it may be that the strike continues because they dare not return to their shops or that their staffs are still away with the "retreating" Volunteers. At any rate, the Government is most anxious that shops should reopen, hence the report of alleged threats that unless doors are reopened the shops and whatever stocks may be in them, will be turned over to the tender mercies of the Labourers' Volunteers.

House-to-house searches are still being made but looting has practically subsided. People are still fleeing, in thousands, presumably, for fear that further fighting may occur. Another rumour is that the pro-Government Cantonese troops are demanding a fine $500 from each shop that included "Volunteers" on its staff, while commanders of all degrees have been marked for fines ranging to fabulous amounts.

Patshan is still on strike but like the Amis, the local Volunteers have packed up their tents and stolen away by night. About 2,000 long and short arms have been seized.

Grave View Held.

That a grave view of the future is taken is evident from the sending up to Shumee from Hongkong of two officers and 50 rank and file from the Grenadiers Regiment, with machine-guns. This detachment sailed yesterday by the "Kinshun" and will be used, ostensibly, to guard Shumee from evil designs—its value having been increased by virtue of the amount of property rushed into the Settlement—and to prevent rowdies getting over the bridges.

Refugees are still pouring down from Canton.

In an extra issued yesterday, the "Tai Kwong Po" (Hongkong) says that as property in the Western Suburb, either belonging to foreigners, or foreign insurers, or companies, has been destroyed, inspection has been made. Reports have been handed in to the British, American, French and Japanese Consuls with requests that necessary action be taken, says the same newspaper.

Leung And Sun.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Paklai, Kowloon, Oct. 19. Much concern is felt here for the merchants in Canton. Interest is increased because a similar situation may prevail here. However, we have been more or less pacified by an alleged declaration by General Leung Hung-kai that he will refuse to carry out any orders from Dr. Sun Yat-sen, should same be given, to disarm the Merchants Volunteers in this locality.

General Leung is the military autocrat of the four (Sze Yap) districts. Even as cock of the walk he finds it advisable to be on good terms with the merchants. Accordingly, he has withdrawn 2,000 men from up-country stations and concentrated them at Sunwui city. Kowloon city is on strike, the streets having the deserted appearance familiar at China New Year.

It has been said of our local military dictator that he is biding his time during the present crisis and that should Dr. Sun and his henchman, General Hsu Shung-chi, be ousted from power, he will prepare to carry on.

Some of the native bankers have taken panic and are feverishly sending away all bullion and specie to Hongkong. On Friday last, one lot comprising 38 boxes each containing $2,000 Canton silver subsidiary coin, was shipped away and more followed.

From Kowloon comes the report of the mobilisation of 400 Merchant Volunteers who have declared their intention of reinforcing their colleagues defeated in Canton. Shekki is quiet but all river transport between Canton and this part of the delta has ceased.

COMPANY MEETING.

CHINA SUGAR SHARES NOW TWENTY-FIVES.

At the third extraordinary general meeting of the China Sugar Refining Company Ltd., held this morning, there were present: Messrs B. D. F. Reith, Chairman, H. P. White and C. G. Mackie, directors, E. B. C. Hornell, Secretary, W. E. L. Shenton, Solicitor, G. M. Shaw, Manager, and the following shareholders: Messrs. H. F. Kirk, Choa Poo-sien, F. M. de Gracia, Ho Leung, Ho Shai-ki, H. E. Hollands, Lo Man-hin, C. Savard Remedios, and J. F. Wright.

After the Secretary had read that part of the notice which concerned the meeting the Chairman said: As indicated in the part of the Notice which has just been read by the Secretary, the meeting has been convened for the purpose of receiving a report of the proceedings at the Second Extraordinary General Meeting of this Company held on the 3rd instant in so far as regards Resolution No. 3 set out in the Notice convening such Second Extraordinary General Meeting which was passed as an Extraordinary Resolution at that meeting and of confirm it, if thought fit, such Resolution as a Special Resolution. That Resolution, as you know, concerned the division of each of the existing 20,000 fully paid up shares of $100 each into 4 fully paid up shares of $25 each.

You will recollect that at the Second Extraordinary General Meeting I gave the reason which acted as the Consulting Committee in bringing forward the Resolution in question, and I do not consider it necessary to do so further this morning, except to remark that the Resolution was unanimously carried.

STRUCK WRONG MAN.

ALLEGED ATTEMPT AT POCKET-PICKING.

CONSTABLE AS COMPLAINANT.

"I don't know if it is any worse to steal from a constable than from anybody else, especially if the constable is in plain clothes," observed Mr. C. A. S. Russ to Mr. R. E. Lindsay at the Magistrate's court this morning. After a pause His Worship replied "Well, he has more chance of being caught."

Mr. Russ appeared to defend a Chinese charged with attempting to pick the pocket of a constable. His Worship had fixed a day for hearing. Mr. Russ had suggested bail which Divisional Inspector T. Cashman opposed. Mr. Russ then made the remark quoted and the case was put back with defendant in custody.

Meeting the Resolution was unanimously passed as an Extraordinary Resolution, and that in order to comply with the Companies Ordinance, it is necessary that such Resolution shall be confirmed as a Special Resolution. I accordingly beg to propose the confirmation as a Special Resolution of the said Resolution, namely:

(3) That each of the existing 20,000 fully paid up shares of $100 each constituting the Company's present capital of $2,000,000 be divided into four fully paid up shares of $25 each so as to make such capital $2,000,000 consisting of 80,000 fully paid up shares of $25 each.

Mr. R. E. Lindsay seconded and the Resolution was unanimously carried.

Tai Tung (Brassmakers) Street, also known as the Tai Ping (Peaceful) Street, belies its name. The hose was brought over the Tai Ping Bridge from the Maloo.

DIVISION I.

"Tamar" v. China "A" ... (3) (3)

Improving on a very poor opening until in the second half they attacked strongly but unsuccessfully, the "Tamar" went down to the tune of three goals on the Sookumpoo ground on Saturday afternoon. The S.C. Athletic found their shooting boots in this game and to give them their due they undoubtedly played a very fine game. Their team work was a real pleasure to watch and nearly every time one of them got the ball it was taken into close proximity at any rate to the "Tamar" goal. Wavish, the navy men's custodian had a busy time of it and he brought off a number of excellent saves.

The two outstanding figures of the game were Lai Yuk-fat, the S.C.'s right full back and Shei Kam-shung, their inside right. The back's work was excellent and he always appeared in the right place with a sure and steady kick. The inside right was always a thorn in the side of the navy men. Wong Pak-ching as centre forward, led his line well although at times he overdid the passing out instead of having a shot or going ahead himself. Of the navy men special mention should be given of Nosworthy who played an excellent game on the right wing. Handford, after a very poor start during which time he did not appear able to do anything right got well into his stride and kept his forwards as well supplied as he could in the circumstances.

Without mincing words there can be no doubt about it; from the time that the ball was set rolling the issue was never in doubt; the S.C. A's were on the top of their form and the navy men played quite well considering.

Goals for the S.C.A. were scored by Shei Kam-shung, Wong Pak-ching and Li Wai-fong.
Following are the teams:—
The "Tamar": Wavish; Ball, Butcher; Neil, Handford, Brown; Nosworthy, Roberts, Prior, Connor, Day.
South China Athletic: Lau Hing-cheung; Lai Yuk-fat, Chau So; Leung Yuk-tong, Wong Shu-wa, Lau Yuk-ying; Pang Kau-wing; Shei Kam-shung, Li Wai-fong, Chau Kwong Ju.

Kowloon v. Club.

(1) (2)

Saturday afternoon the Kowloon Football Club was at home to their friends from Hongkong, and a large attendance turned out to watch the match, completely filling the two Kowloon stands whilst a large number of spectators watched from the rails.

The Kowloon eleven had the best of the play throughout and were certainly unfortunate in losing by two goals to one. The match commenced with Kowloon pressing and from a scrimmage around the Club's goal, Bishop retired hurt, but managed to continue after a few minutes. Kowloon then continued to press and from a good run down, McBride shot wide in front of an open goal. The Club then obtained a bit of the play and made Kowloon sit up, but were unable to score, half-time arriving with the score sheet a blank.

The second half showed Kowloon still on the offensive, with Angus, who seemed to have all the luck making wonderful saves. Then Key got the ball and forced his way through the Kowloon defence. McKelvie luckily accidentally handled the ball on the behind line; the referee gave a penalty. Forsyth took the kick and put the Club in the lead. This enlivened the game up a bit, Kowloon taking the ball into the Club's area, when, from a scrimmage near the goal, the referee gave another penalty this time for Kowloon. McKelvie took the shot and scored, levelling matters up.

Kowloon then tried hard to get the lead, but were unlucky. Key once more got the ball and passed to Forsyth who with a lovely shot, which quite beat Duncan, gave the Club the winning goal.

The last ten minutes was one bombardment of the Club's goal by Kowloon, who still looked like drawing level, but Nash had the misfortune to be hurt and had to leave the field, coming back just near the end. Bishop, of the Club, given, had to leave the field again but was soon back. Kowloon still stuck like leeches to the Club's goal, the ball hardly going out of the Club's half, but

ELECTION SPEECHES. JOINT ONSLAUGHT ON LABOUR. PROBABLE INCREASE IN PETTICOAT RULE.

(Reuter's Service.)

London, October 18. A week of oratory shows that the Conservatives, whose hopes of a victory are very high, are vigorously attacking the Labour Government on patriotic grounds. Mr. Winston Churchill yesterday giving the slogan "Red flag versus Union Jack," which was repeated with variations on Conservative platforms.

There are anti-Labour demonstrations throughout the country. Pictures of Russian Bolsheviks carrying bags of British money are the most conspicuous feature of the innumerable Conservative electioneering posters.

Lord Birkenhead, who is most actively supporting Mr. Churchill as a Conservative, improved on Mr. Churchill's phrase, "No time for murders," while the Liberals, in also eloquent on the grave consequences of the Russian Treaty, in connection with which Sir John Simon declared, "The Labour Government has met its Waterloo."

Mr. Lloyd George told his hearers that they were being asked to give thirty millions sterling to Russia "where knives spring from the ground to tear the flesh of humanity."

"CHURCHILL THE BAPTIST." This joint Conservative and Liberal onslaught on Labour has been productive of a rapprochement between two traditionally opposed old parties unprecedented in British politics. In some cases Conservative and Liberal candidates shook hands publicly, and Lord Birkenhead in the course of his denunciation of Socialism said, "After the disastrous period of Socialist Government, I wish from the bottom of my heart success to that patriotic Englishman, Mr. Asquith, at Paisley."

On the other hand Mr. Walsh, the Secretary of State for War, denounced Mr. Asquith as "Pecksniff," while Mr. Philip Snowden, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, charged Mr. Lloyd George with playing a deep political game and predicted that if the Conservatives were returned with a small majority the country would find itself governed by a party led by Mr. Lloyd George, Mr. Winston Churchill and Lord Birkenhead, with Mr. Asquith excluded. Mr. Snowden further described Mr. Churchill as the John the Baptist of another Liberal-Tory coalition.

Mr. Ramsay MacDonald at Barry asked his opponents to make "a decent intellectual fight instead of sniffling like mangy dogs in a dungheap."

LIBERALS SELL THEIR SOULS. That the Liberals are selling their souls, is the theme of the Labour platform, where defence of the Russian Treaty and pride in the Government's achievements at home and abroad, are the keynotes of the speakers.

Mr. John Wheatley, Minister of Health, described his opponents' utterances on the subject of unemployment as "sheer impudence," and declared that unemployment was the direct result of the capitalist régime. He predicted that unemployment alone in a few years time would lead to the return to Westminster of a Socialist Government pledged to establish a new social order in the most rapid way possible.

Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, in his election address, appeals for support for a Government, which will "realise the dream of a co-operative commonwealth of service."

RUGBY FOOTBALL. HONGKONG CLUB DEFEAT NAVY TEAM.

A capital exposition of Rugby football was witnessed on the Hongkong Football Club's ground, Saturday afternoon, when the Club met a Navy fifteen. The game was closely contested from start to finish and though the Club led by 6 points to nil, till near the end, the Navy obtained a try eventually, which was converted. Some good forward rushes, and nice clean passing was witnessed. Beveridge crossed the line for the Club in the first half, but the try was not converted. In the second half, Forsyth scored a pretty try from a kick across and Campbell only just failed to convert.

Within a few minutes of time, a well-conceived movement—which started from a scrum on the line—in which all the naval three-quarters were conspicuous, and a fine cut-in resulted in a try for the Navy which was converted. The final score thus read:
Club XV (2 tries) 6 points.
Navy XV (1 goal) 5 points.
The Club team was: Richmond; Skinner, Campbell, Foster, Easterbrook; Shovelton, Cox; Forsyth, Davies, Lee, Groves, Beveridge, Jordan, Patterson, Lavan.

desire for continuance of Mr. MacDonald's administration, because it was under the pressure of Revolutionary Labour. He asserted that Mr. MacDonald's so-called followers had forced him to resign the Russian treaty and release Campbell. M. Zinovieff declared it was now unnecessary to send agitators abroad, because enemies like MacDonald had become their best agitators.

CINEMA DISPLAY. M. Zinovieff's speech, which was accompanied by laughter, described Mr. MacDonald's situation as affording the "finest cinema display for us on the international political screen." He "taunted" Mr. MacDonald with the statement on the eve of acceptance of the Premiership that he was determined to have no monkey tricks from Moscow. Mr. MacDonald was now fighting with his back to the wall, and must find serious arguments in favour of Bolshevism and wily nifty plead Moscow's cause to defend Campbell.

THE NOMINATIONS. Nominating day passed off pretty free of incident in bright sunny weather. There was the usual crop of last minute surprises, mainly provided by the Labourites, who put forward candidates where it had been expected there would only be a fight between Conservatives and Liberals, and consequently the three-cornered fights, namely 225, are more numerous than anticipated otherwise would be. There will be Conservative versus Liberal contests in fifty-one constituencies, Conservatives versus Labour in 247, Liberal versus Labour in 541, and four or more cornered fights in three. Ten Sinn Féiners have been nominated in Ulster.

There are thirty-nine women candidates. No fewer than seventeen Quakers are standing, of whom thirteen are labourites. A very surprising withdrawal was the Irish Nationalist, Mr. Joseph Devlin, who intended to put up against Sir Leslie Scott, former Conservative Solicitor-General, at Liverpool. The latter consequently had a walk over. Mr. Neville Chamberlain at the last moment added Liberal opposition, in addition to the Marquess Curzon's son-in-law, Mr. Oswald Mosley, a Labourite, who formerly sat for Harrow as Conservative.

The nominations total 1,405.

INTERPORT GOLF.

HONGKONG v. MANILA.

HOME TEAM'S VICTORY.

The sun shone out in all his glory on Saturday, and provided delightful conditions for the first day of the two days' Interport Golf matches at Paoing, between the Royal Hongkong Golf Club and the representatives of Manila.

The result of the first day's play was a runaway win for the Hongkong side, in the Singles every match being won by a home player except that between Mr. E. J. R. Mitchell (Hongkong) and Lieut. G. W. Read (Manila), which provided particularly exciting golf, the players running neck and neck all the way, and finishing all square at the 36th hole.

Each of the six pairs played 18 holes in the morning, and the remainder in the afternoon.

On paper, the most interesting match when play started on Saturday morning, appeared to be that between Mr. A. B. Stewart, former champion of Hongkong, and Mr. Ivory, the crack player of Manila. And it actually did produce some thrilling golf, though in some respects it was not as notable a game as the Ferguson-Pew contest a little later.

Ivory took the first hole, and Stewart the second. He was two up at the 7th tee. There he pulled his driver rather badly, leaving his ball in a nasty lie in the rough. Ivory drove a nice straight ball, and looked like taking this hole, but Stewart recovered splendidly with his masher, to win it in 3. At the end of the first round Stewart stood 4 up on his opponent.

In the afternoon Stewart was again rather too good for Ivory, and won his match by 7 up and 6 to play.

Some really remarkable play was seen in the match between Mr. Few, of Manila, and Mr. A. H. Ferguson (Hongkong).

The latter, in the morning, made a noteworthy beginning by doing the first eight holes in bogey, and the 12th, 14th, 15th and 16th in one under. At the end of the first round, Ferguson was 4 up.

Few put up a fine fight in the afternoon, playing brilliant golf, but his British opponent still held the upper hand, and won by 5 up and 3 to play.

The other results were:

Mr. J. H. Shewan (Hongkong) beat Mr. Mason (Manila) by 12 and 11.

Mr. R. A. Camidge (Hongkong) beat Lieut. Vanaman (Manila) by 10 and 9.

Mr. E. J. R. Mitchell (Hongkong) and Lieut. G. W. Read (Manila) finished all square.

This was a singularly close and exciting game throughout, as will be seen by the results of various holes-in-turn, as show below:

Capt. L. W. Bennett, R.A. (Hongkong) beat Mr. Jamieson (Manila) by 8 up and 7 to play.

The Hongkong partners will be as follows: A. B. Stewart and L. W. Shewan, A. H. Ferguson and R. A. Camidge, and L. W. Bennett and E. J. R. Mitchell.

Yesterday's Play.

In the foursomes, played yesterday, the home team won all matches.

The visitors started full of keenness. The first four to go out were Messrs. Stewart and Shewan (Hongkong) and Few and Read (Manila). The first hole was halved, and the home players took the second. The third was halved, and the fourth fell to Hongkong. Stewart was showing very fine form, driving with great length and admirable judgment in a troublesome wind, which grew slightly stronger as the day advanced.

A marked feature of this game was the splendid golf played almost throughout by Few. He was none too lucky at times, but he showed a remarkable knowledge of the game in all its departments, and his confidence never left him.

Read showed up excellently at times, notably in the afternoon, when he won the 26th hole for his side by sinking a putt of at least eight yards from the corner of the green.

This match fell eventually to the Hongkong side by 7 up and 5 to play.

Ferguson was again the great form when, partnered by Camidge, he went out to play Messrs. Ivory and Mason. His shots were almost all beautiful on the line, and his

Messrs. Moxon and Taylor report as follows:—

We have had a quiet market during the week under review but prices generally have been very well maintained.

The Shanghai market has shown more activity and prices have firmed up all round.

The following are the principal alterations since last week:—

Hongkong Banks.—Have been up and down owing to Exchange and after coming to business at $1.70 to $1.75, close with sales at $1.65.

Unions.—Continue in good demand and were done during the week at $2.42.

Hotels.—Are rather easier with sellers at quotations.

Hongkong Lands.—Eased off a point or two during the week but at the close are rather firmer with buyers at $1.18.

Humphreys.—Have also eased off and were done as low as $2.25.

Cements.—Have been steady, closing with buyers at $2.54.

Kowloon Wharves.—Have again been the medium of considerable business closing with buyers at $2.07.

Hongkong Docks.—Have eased off, and at the close there are sellers at $1.72.

Shanghai Docks.—Continue to firm up, closing with local buyers at $1.95 and Shanghai buying at $1.95.

Ropes.—Are quiet at quotations.

Hongkong Electrics.—Have been in good demand and a considerable number of shares have changed hands both for cash and forward on the basis of $4.37 1/2 cash.

Hongkong Trams.—Have also been the medium of a fair business, closing firm with buyers at $4.50, but no sellers even at $4.50.

Peak Trams.—Continue in good demand and have risen to a buying rate of $2.24 for Old and $4 for New shares.

China Sugars.—Are steady with buyers at $4.05 cash.

China Providents.—Have also been in good demand and a good many shares have changed hands both for cash and forward, closing firm with buyers at $3.22 cash.

China Lights.—Have eased off slightly, closing with sellers at $2.74 cash and $2.80 for December.

Dairy Farms.—Are quiet with sellers prevailing.

Lane Crawfords.—Are asked for at $1.84 without attracting sellers.

Steamboats.—Are quiet with buyers at $1.12 for Settlement.

London. Quotations of the 16th inst.:—Hongkong Banks $1.40 10/-, Indos Deferred $1.15 1/2, shells $3.17 1/2. All middle prices.

HARBOUR RACE.

FIRST EVENT TO-DAY.

The annual harbour races commence this evening, when the swimming event for ladies will be held. The race for Chinese takes place to-morrow, while the Open Event has been fixed for Wednesday.

The entries are as follow:

Ladies' Race.—Misses Hunt, D. Hunt, M. Groundwater, M. Blunsdon and B. George.

Chinese race.—Tong Tan-chui, Chung Yee-win, Leong Hoe-yang, Leung Sul-nan and Wong Kam-fan.

Open Race.—Messrs. A. F. May, J. R. Johnstone, K. G. Evans, A. Tarnow, E. W. Raiton, R. W. Smith, B. W. Assumpcao, A. George, D. Lyon, and Stoker L. J. Rabet and Ldg. Seaman White of H. M. S. "Diomedé."

judgment of "wind carry" in driving and approaching, was beyond praise. He was the outstanding figure of the two days' play, and yesterday was mainly responsible for the defeat of Ivory and Mason by 9 and 7.

At the 31st hole, Mason was successful with a putt of a good twelve yards from the edge of the green.

In the third match yesterday E. J. R. Mitchell and Capt. Bennett beat Jamieson and Vanaman by 5 and 3.

CRICKET.

DISAPPOINTING TRIAL GAME ON SATURDAY.

OTHER RESULTS.

The main cricket fixture on Saturday was the inter-port trial game between sides captained by T. E. Pearce and A. E. Wood on the H.K.C.C. ground. The former team batted first and with the exception of Jotham, Kent and Evans gave a very sorry display.

It is true that Fincher's 24 included two consecutive hits for six off Jacobs, but with the exception of those named, the batsmen seemed content to allow the ball to hit the bat.

The wicket was so dead that it gave no help to the bowlers and runs should have been easy to obtain if only a little "more wood" had been put behind the strokes.

The total reached 123 after approximately two hours' batting. Five out of the ten batsmen retired and as Omar was not out, there is no need to stress the disadvantage under which the bowlers suffered.

Bowler took two wickets for 10 and Wallington and Jacobs one each for 13 and 16 respectively.

Wood's eleven put a little more life into the game, scoring 105 in slightly better time. S. H. Ismail retired with 19 to his credit.

McNicholl with 16 and Bowker was not out 16. Webster, after a shaky beginning, made some good shots before being run out.

Of the bowlers, Arculli was most effective with three wickets for 24.

The fielding on both sides was weak, to say the least of it, and dropped catches and runs from overthrows were too frequent to be passed over, towards the end of the day's play.

To sum up, the game has demonstrated the willingness of the selection committee to give almost everyone a trial—and almost everyone playing on Saturday failed to prove his qualification for further consideration.

Whether the cause was due to nervousness it is impossible to say, but initiative between the wickets was entirely lacking as was the art of backing up, with but few exceptions. Cricketers, who watched the game, will readily be able to sift the wheat from the chaff, and there the matter must rest for the time. Scores and analyses follow:—

K.C.C. II. v. A.P.C.

The A.P.C., who have this season entered the cricket ranks for the first time, journeyed across to Kowloon and won a decisive victory by 139 runs with five wickets to spare.

The main feature of the play was A. W. Ramsey's 114 (retired), a brilliant display of consistent all round batting, in which he gave few chances.

The K.C.C. playing with a weak eleven, on account of another match at the University, could only muster 66 of which Earnshaw contributed 29 not out. Scores follow:—

FIGURES IN NEWS OF THE WORLD.

Below: EDWARD O. LEADER, JACK KEARNS, ABBY ROCKEFELLER, RUFUS C. DAWES.

Rufus Dawes, multi-millionaire oil magnate, brother of General Charles Dawes, Vice-Presidential candidate and the man who, with Owen Young, drew up the reparations agreement, is on his way to France. It is suggested that he will become the Agent General of the Reparations Payments. Edward O. Leader, former athletic star of the University of Washington, who took a demerolized Yale crew and in two years turned out the world's champion Olympic eight, has signed a new five-year contract to coach the Blue teams. Jack Kearns, Jack Dempsey's man Friday, had followed his chief into hospital to have his nose straightened. Miss Abby Rockefeller, daughter of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., whose suspended sentence on a second conviction of speeding caused a sensation in New York City police courts, has returned from Europe, silent on the episode.

DRAMATIC RUSSIAN TREASON TRIAL.

Formerly a member of the Socialist Revolutionary party in Russia, Victorovich Savinkov organized a plot against the Communist party and particularly against Lenin and Trotsky. He joined the Kolchak forces and took an active part in that campaign. Captured recently while disguised and living under the name of Victor Stepanoff, he was tried by a military court, found guilty and sentenced to death. He pleaded passionately for his life and was given a sentence of ten years because of great repentance. Photograph shows him at the extreme left, standing.

Speed Trials.

The "West Virginia," last super-dreadnought of the United States will be allowed to build for ten years. It is shown completing her speed trials off Rockland, Maine, preparatory to joining the battle fleet.

Count Now A Caddy.

When Czar Nicholas abdicated Wolf Alexis Dimitri Starizna was a Count, whose family was rich. Now he still has a big income, but at the present rate of exchange it won't buy a toothpick a month. That's the reason he is earning his living as a caddy.

Envoy To Tokyo.

Edgar Addison Bancroft, well-known Chicago lawyer, and brother of the famous historian, who has been chosen as American Ambassador to Tokyo. He fills the post left open by the resignation of Cyrus E. Woods.

AQUATICS.

KOWLOON DOCK SPORTS YESTERDAY.

There was a large gathering, yesterday afternoon, when the Kowloon Dock Recreation Club members held their fifth annual aquatic sports. An interesting feature of the afternoon was the Derby Race in which competitors were required to mount wooden horses and make progress with the aid of their hands. Besides providing amusement for the spectators, there was also a sweepstake on the result of the race. The first and second prizes of the sweep were won by Mr. V. Ramsay and the third by Mr. D. Lyle. At the conclusion of the sports the prizes were distributed by Mrs. Dyer, who was the recipient of a souvenir from Miss Johnstone, Mr. J. M. Smyth, the President of the Club thanked the visitors for their presence and also the prize donors.

OBITUARY.

SIR PERCY SCOTT.

(Reuter's Service.)

LONDON, October 18. The death is announced of Admiral Sir Percy Scott, K.C.B., K.C.V.O., C.V.O., C.B. [Admiral Sir Percy Scott was born on July 10, 1853. He entered the Navy at the age of 13, and was made Captain in 1893, receiving the rank of Admiral in 1913. He served in the Ashanti War, 1873-74; Congo Expedition, 1875; Egyptian War, 1882; South Africa, 1899-1900. He served on the Ordnance Committee, on the Committee on Naval Uniforms and the Naval Exhibition Committee; he was the inventor of the night signalling apparatus now used in the Royal Navy and of various appliances for improving heavy gun shooting; he invented the gun carriages which enabled 6-inch and 4.7-inch guns to be used in South Africa. He retired in 1913 and was in charge of the gunnery defences of London against aircraft attacks, 1915-16. The late Admiral combined an inventive genius with a gift of humour. It was he who rushed the big naval guns up to defend Ladysmith by inventing special carriages for them. Without these weapons Sir George White could never have held out. Later his passion for practical efficiency led to the famous "pint" before gunnery signal that caused the row with Admiral Sir Charles Beresford. Sir Percy's enthusiasm for gunnery, raised to the whole standard of the British Fleet's shooting. Since his retirement he concentrated on anti-aircraftship propaganda. He showed Fisher's vision of a future flying submarine.]

"ARMS NOT MINE."

BUT STOKER GETS SEVEN YEARS.

C.P.O. CLARKE'S WATCHFULNESS.

The observance by Mr. S. J. Clarke, Chief Preventive Officer, from the ship's deck, of a sack protruding from the port bunker in the stoke-hole, led to the appearance at the Criminal Sessions this morning of Leung Sze, a stoker, on a charge of unlawful possession of arms and ammunition.

Mr. T. M. Hazlerigg, Crown Solicitor, prosecuted. Prisoner was not represented. Mr. Hazlerigg said that Chief Preventive Officer S. J. Clarke boarded the "Ning Chow" at 4.30 a.m. on October 3, as it was at the buoy in the harbour. He looked down into the stoke-hole and saw the defendant standing there. A bag was protruding from the port bunker and he went down to investigate. When he got down the defendant, without being questioned, blurted out "those arms are not mine." Three sacks containing arms and ammunition were found by Mr. Clarke. The defendant, who was a stoker on board, told Mr. Clarke that a passenger had entrusted him with the arms and had promised to pay him $20 wages. When charged, he said that the arms were not his and made a statement as to a passenger entrusting him with them on deck. The passenger had then gone ashore. The defendant, in any case, said Mr. Hazlerigg, had taken the arms from the deck to the stoke-hole.

Mr. Clarke, Chief Preventive Officer, said there were 37 pilots
